FROM THE
LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRBa0860/1dn

July 29, 2005

To Jennifer Stegall:

I have decided that my concerns about the amendment, originally drafted as LRBa0849/1, are unfounded, so have not made the changes I spoke to you about the other day; essentially, I was worried that the terms “behavioral health services,” “pupil services,” etc., should be defined, but I now think that the phrase “...for which the behavioral health provider, health care provider, pupil services provider, or substance abuse prevention provider has been licensed or certified...” (in s. 250.042 (4) (b) in the amendment) will suffice, because the licensing or certifying body will have established the parameters for the provider’ scope of practice under the license or certification, and it’s therefore unnecessary for the statute to establish what that is.

Therefore, this amendment only adds s. 250.042 (4) (c) 12. to the original amendment, as requested.

Please note, though, my question on the Drafter’s Note for the original amendment:

Will the behavioral health providers, pupil services providers, and substance abuse prevention providers be providing services only on behalf of a health care facility, or some other entity (such as a school)?
